Bulletin October 2020

President Pete's Piece

Dear Probus Friends,

As President of the Ellenbrook Combined Probus Club I was so proud to induct 7 new members at our September meeting. In welcoming these 7 new members to our Club I sincerely hope that their Probus membership will be personally rewarding and satisfying for you and your family, as it has been for those present at the meeting. This has brought our membership to 80 members.

Probus membership is a two way street. You reap what you sow. Through participation we get the best out of our vibrant Club—Thank you

There is no doubt that this year has been challenging and our Club Members has certainly risen to those challenges. We are connecting in ways that were never anticipated, discovering new and old friends and also learning a lot in the process. We all have been so pleased to get back into the swing of things and seeing so many friends at our meetings and at outings—42 members at our lunch at “The Abbey” is no mean feat!

Yours in Friendship, Fellowship and Fun

Pete

Kalbarri—Trip Michael and Jilly Gillespie

Many of the members will know that Michael and Jilly have recently returned from a great holiday at Kalbarri . Thank you Michael and Jilly for sharing with your fellow members.

Kalbarri is a resort town at the mouth of the Murchison River, on Western Australia's coast. It's known for its sea-side cliffs, estuary beach and wild pelicans. Nearby Kalbarri National Park has rocky gorges like the iconic Z Bend, named for a sharp bend in the river. The park's coast is home to resident dolphins and seasonal humpback whales, seen from a boardwalk beside the Island Rock and Natural Bridge rock forms.

The above photograph shows the Kalbarri Skywalk a recently opened viewing platform overlooking the Murchison River—awesome.! The 2nd photograph shows Jilly waving at Michael as he took the above photograph — maybe she was waving at us members at home and wished we were there also.

Guest Speaker

I took this photo recently in Carnarvon. Do you think I should benefit from the guest speakers tips?

I have picked the date of Wednesday 20th January at 11.30. Parking is a bit of a premium so if car pooling is appropriate, we should do it. The menu is great and ranges in price from $12.00 to $15.00 for the senior choices.
